Christmas Race

Compete in teams in a number of Christmassy tasks and challenges. You will answer questions about different, more or less well-known, Christmas traditions, carry out photo and video challenges and much more.

Christmas Race can be carried out in your outdoor environment or as a route from the office to a restaurant. That way you get to enjoy some fresh winter air before dinner.

After the game, you get access to all photos and videos created during the activity. We promise a festive activity that guarantees a full Christmas spirit.

This activity also exists as an indoor version, see Christmas Social.
